D

For the maintenance of high standards in his classes and on the campus, he has won our respect. For adding greater burdens to his already overtaxed schedule, he has our gratitude. For understanding our individual needs and wants and for setting an example of a true Christian life, he has won our admiration. To Thomas Edward Gilmer, Ph. D., scientist, teacher and friend, we dedicate this volume.

E D I C A T I O N

The 1924 edition of "The Kaleidoscope" was put out by Morris Henry Bittinger, who later returned to Hampden-Sydney in the capacity of Professor of History and Government.

THE

PRESIDENT OF OUR COLLEGE

Having ridden through the first four years of his administration with him, we know him as a true friend and Christian. We admire him for what he is and what he stands for. We trust his judgment and call on him in time of need.

Dr. Edgar Graham Gammon.

Faced this year with more difficult problems than the councils of previous years, Mr. Peden and his associates made clear to the Administration and Student Body their intentions. They lifted the prestige of their group to the highest point in their history by announcing that they intended to handle only cases on breach of the honor code.

The group handling the cases is perhaps the best rounded group that have ever held these positions; representing all types of boys and all the various phases of college life. During the trying times that face the college this year the Administration knows that it can count on the Student Council as the most influential activity to promote their ideals and policies.

This year the student body officers have proved themselves to be an efficient as well as popular body. They have held the student body together during hard times, and they deserve much credit.

Robert Bluford has shown himself to be an efficient and a popular man on the campus and should go far in holding popular offices. Bobby Richmond, popular athlete, steps into his position from being Secretary-Treasurer last year and holds much sway in student affairs. Jim Peden, holding all the important positions one man can possibly hold, climaxes a great career at Hampden-Sydney by proving himself a distinguished leader.

Working with the limited funds of the Student Finance Board and losing the support of many of the organizations on the campus the Editor and Business Manager have attempted to put out what will probably be the last annual at Hampden-Sydney for the duration. The editorial staff has had to rely on writing the true facts about the student organizations and not give the blowups of the past. We hope that this will tend to increase the quality of the work that the students are putting on the activities and much of the sloppiness will disappear.

The business staff must be commended on putting through the successful financial season when the chips were stacked against them.

Showing the first war-time changes to the Hampden-Sydney publications, the Tiger this year appeared before the student body with a decrease in size. Concentrating on weekly columns and well-meant criticisms of various organizations, the Tiger has consistently attacked those phases of college life which their group felt were wrong.

Losing all of its journalistic talent by graduation, the newspaper has had to recruit much of its talent to keep alive the ever-present columns of the campus authorities on such topics as world affairs, current books, and the social life of the Tiger staff. Senior Tommy Johns, exerting journalistic skill and forethought, has won much recognition from the administration and alumni for his weekly meditations on war-time Hampden-Sydney. Another popular columnist, Ollie VanPetten, with his forceful comments on current affairs has received much praise from Dean Wilson and the History Department.

The business staff, under the energetic efforts of Moon Bailey, has handled the distribution of the news in a most efficient manner. Pres Watt has added much to his sports page in the way of intramural comments.

The Tiger deserves credit for improvement during the year, a year of uncertainty and discontentment.

The Garnet has returned to be the literary magazine at Hampden-Sydney, after two years of being the Prince Edward version of the New Yorker. After returning to the literary field the staff found itself confronted by a shortage of literary talent.

The size of the magazine has been cut down as well as the personnel and we hope to the same proportions. Editor Cabell and Business Manager Williams should have no difficulty in putting the magazine through the year in good financial straits by following the example set by Ranny Munt.

Probably the most outstanding aspect of the magazine this year was found in the pen of Art Editor Doug Crummett. His creative imagination produced features which brought forth much favorable comment.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY COLLEGE

STUDENTS CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Students Christian Association at Hampden-Sydney had, since we have known it, been an organization of ministerial students. We have seen the breaking down of this bad policy during the last two years and now we consider the Students Christian Association more of a student organization than before. The organization is led by one of the most able leaders that it has had in many years, Dick Stephenson, who has won the admiration of both students and faculty for his sincerity and ability.

The Students Christian Association sponsored its annual fall social for the freshmen at which time they received their copy of The Key and were introduced to the residents of the hill. The Key was handled most brilliantly this year by Elbert Williamson who presented us with the best "rat bible" we have seen in many years.

Many other cultural activities were presented for the entertainment of the students and faculty along with the regular devotional programs of the Christian Association.

The Cabinet in the meeting room.

CABELL, WOLCOTT, COMBELICK, WILLIAMS

OFFICERS

T. A. COMBELICK President
E. W. WOLCOTT Vice-President

G. B. WILLIAMS Secretary
R. E. CABELL Treasurer

For the first time in many years, the Student Finance Board is receiving the recognition due it. This organization has controlled student activities for many years and is a representative group of the students. Meeting several times each year the board receives an allotment from the school and divides it between the various organizations.

The Finance Board faced its most difficult year this fall when it was forced to cut all appropriations. All the publications took a decided cut and many organizations received no money at all after being fattened for many years by small cuts.

The executive positions of the Board run as usual in any activity except that they must audit the books of all campus organizations and control their policies of finance. By so controlling the financial policies of the organizations, the Board has built up a sizeable sinking fund which has been invested in United States War Saving Bonds.

This year sees an enlarged class go forth from Epsilon Chapter of Chi Phi due to the accelerated program of the college. They will miss such notables as Eddie Wolcott, O. D. K., P. D. E., B. M. O. C., Business Manager of this Annual, Basketball Manager, prominent socialite, etc. Frank Taylor, star tennis and basketball player and Student Council man, leaves for Med school as does Tommy Johns, varsity basketball and tennis man. A. J. White will leave his mark here at Death Valley as he turns in his tennis racquet to try the navy. Catlett, Coxe, and Crummett leave the Tiger staff depleted and will be missed greatly. Tom Bosworth will be missed greatly around town. Smokey Joe Hereford, Epsilon chapter president, Senior class president, and Sigma prexy, will be a hard man to replace as an all-intramural man. Chi Phi loses many valuable men this year and must work hard to produce men to fill the vacated places.

Sigma Sigma started off the year's social activities with another of its famous annual house parties with guests from Macon, S. T. C., etc. All season the Sigs kept a strong intramural team in the running but failed to push over a winner.

The chapter loses five strong men this year, including top-ranking Clemer Peck, J. C. coach and varsity late season star, O. D. K. man, and summer school student body president. Charlie "Hawk" Ale finished up his work in early December and left the school without an intramural manager. He deserves much recognition for handling the thankless job so efficiently during the past two years. T. Clinton Bales winds up a brilliant track record by captaining the team his senior year. Bobby Moore, chemistry assistant and Chi Beta Phi president, left school in February for Medical school as did his crony "Cinnamon" Llewellyn, whose wit and humor will be missed by the normal school girls. With all these notaries gone it is up to Bobby Richmond to pilot the Sigs to their usual strong position on the campus.

The Kappa Sig fraternity as usual was strong in supplying athletes to the varsity teams and thus weakened her intramural standing. Being the weakest that they have been on the campus for the past four years the Kappa Sigs look to a strong pledge class to bring back some of their lost prestige.

President Blanton, A. I. Dodson, Messerschmidt, and Trice all set sail for Medical school. Blanton was O. D. K. prexy and football man. A. I. Dodson hung up a beautiful scholastic record in his two and two-thirds years here. Rudy Trice and Billy Clarke deserve credit for keeping alive a badly damaged German Club. Carl Messerschmidt will be missed in the labs of Bagby Hall, where he spent most of his afternoons. "Moon" Bailey, old faithful of the football squad and Monogram Club workhorse, left in February for the army.

Iota chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha started this year under the handicap of having to live up to a most successful past year and more than equaled the task. The brothers started out by leading the school in pledging and heading for their sixth intramural cup in seven years.

Iota will miss its four prominent Seniors, who are headed for the armed forces of the country. Student Body, Student Council, and Fraternity President Jim Peden winds up the most brilliant collegiate career that Hampden-Sydney has ever seen and leaves for V-7 school in June. Walter Sprye, three sport and O. D. K. man, has held every office in the Athletic Association during the past three years and ends his career as prexy of the outfit. Walt joins Jim Peden in the V-7 school. Scrub Newbill, lightweight football star for two years and ace intramural man, will be flying for Uncle Sam's Navy by the time this book comes out. Editor Combellick leaves the honorary fraternities for a tryout with the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

Alpha Tau was sadly lacking in campus leaders this year due to the graduation of last year's Big Three, Vaden, Hay, and Thurman. Bob Irby, three-year Senior, led the fraternity through the year. John Sivell, footballer and Monogram Club president, sets sail with the navy for V-7 school. Billy Hurt, Glee Club prexy, will be missed by the music lovers of the hill. Dudley Allen and Finley Shields leave Shannons and S. T. C. for new fields. Ding Dong Beall hopes to leave the Garrison for V-7 school if that diploma comes through. With the loss of such campus personalities the boys of the Kappa Alpha Order will have to work hard to restore the personnel of the chapter.

Starting off the year by holding the majority of the members of the Jongleurs, the Theta Chi's developed into a more potent fraternity than it has been in the past few years. They pulled a prize package out of the hat when they pledged Ace Livick, star basketballer.

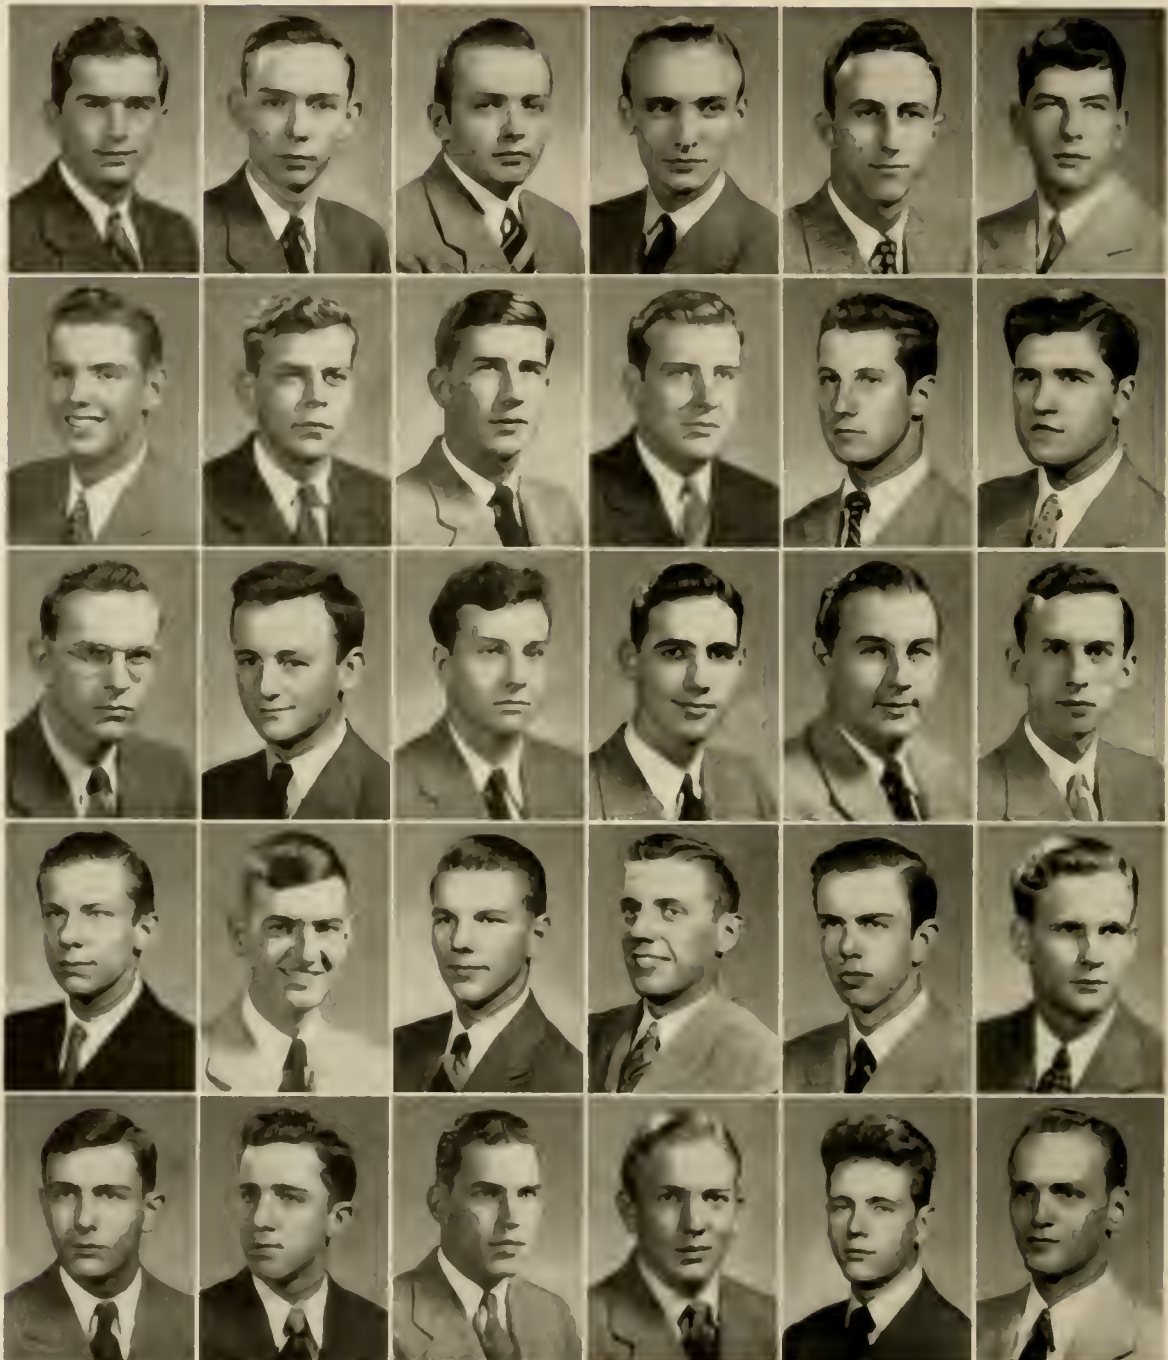

Tedo Savage, Jongleur and Pan-Hellenic president, leaves the job of guiding the fraternity to capable Rod Mundy. Jim Lipsey, ace intramural and Chi Epsilon man, leaves his haunts in S. T. C. to brighter fields. Tommy Kirk, head cheerleader, has whipped up a top-notch school spirit team and wears the big grey "H" as a result of his efforts.

During the past four years we have seen rise a new fraternity at Hampden-Sydney. This has been the result of much work by the brothers and close cooperation by each and every member. The Lambda Chi's now rank among the leaders in the fraternities and the rise has been nothing short of sensational. They are an up and coming fraternity, so watch their smoke.

Much of the rise is due to the close cooperation that the Senior class has put in with the boys at the Alpha Beta Chi house. Lou "I Know My Aircraft Carriers" Alexander, a campus good-for-nothing, has become one of the most well-liked boys on the campus. Charlie Jenkins, of long week-end fame, has been placed in 4-F so that he may stay another year to instruct the new pledges in the fine art on long week-ending. There is a rumor that this is due to the influence of Diamond Jim Moorefield of A. B. C. and card fame. Bob Spencer hangs up his spurs as football manager and Phi prexy.

Opening the year with a successful three-day orientation program for the freshmen, Lambda Circle started the year with an energetic activity. Still thought of as the highest individual honor at Hampden-Sydney, the society was greatly hindered by decreased facilities with which to carry out its former activity of entertaining athletic teams visiting Hampden-Sydney. Many of the other activities planned by Omicron Delta Kappa failed to materialize throughout the year.

It is the sincere desire of this publication that, when these days of trial and tribulation are over, the honor society may once again carry on the various services to the college which have characterized O. D. K. as the greatest honor which can be bestowed on a man at Hampden-Sydney.

Although it can claim a heritage as great as any fraternity at Hampden-Sydney, Sigma has not come into its own until the last few years. Under the able leadership of Joe Heretford the society has helped the administration in sponsoring drives, speakers, and movies. Sigma has distinguished itself from the usual run of honor societies by these activities and has now a position of honor on the campus.

Having as its purposes to act as a publication board and to develop journalistic skill and unity on the campus, the honor journalistic fraternity was one only in name this year as any visible signs of activity were well hidden.

Few meetings were held during the year, and no revival of interest was attempted. It is hoped that the initiation of new men in the spring will bring in some men with the initiative to activate the dormant journalistic fraternity.

With only five lettermen returning and the coaching reins in the hands of a new man, Hampden-Sydney's outlook for the 1942 football season was at best uncertain and from any viewpoint no more than fair. Even more so than other institutions in the state, the Tiger losses to the armed services were extremely heavy.

Coach Frank Summers, just arrived from Randolph-Macon, faced the problem of playing a difficult eight-game schedule with untried freshmen and sophomores carrying the brunt of the attack and defense. Buckling down to work on the first day of September, Summers, with the able assistance of Coach "Ike" Reveley, put the gridders through two practices a day in preparation for the season's opener at Norfolk against the state champion Indians from William and Mary.

Playing inspired football against a heavier team which was later to boast of seven all-State first stringers and one all-American, the Tigers gave a mighty good account of themselves before going down 27-0. Captain Walter Sprye, freshman Bill Houtz, and Harold Johnson stood out in defeat, but the whole team played as heroes.

In a driving rain which hampered the offensive efforts of both elevens, the battling Bengals dropped a close one to the Cavaliers at Charlottesville 12-0. Although they easily outgained the Wahos and played most of the game in Virginia territory, a couple of bad breaks forced the Tigers to bow. Little scat-back Bobby Richmond, Jeff Hawley, and Houtz led the Garnet and Gray in a number of drives, none of which were capitalized upon.

After this game, Coach Reveley was called by the navy to Boston, and Albert Howard, a former H. S. C. grid star, replaced him as Summers' assistant until Howard himself was called into the Marine Corps.

SPENCER

IRBY

History repeated itself in the see-saw struggle between Hampden-Sydney and the Newport News Apprentice School when the Tigers got off to a 13-0 lead in the first half on two forward passes, Houtz to Sprye each time. However, as in last year's contest, this was not enough as the aerial-minded Shipbuilders cut loose with every play in the book, coming back to tally twice just before the end of the second quarter. Both extra points were good, giving the opponents a 14-13 lead. The final period saw the Apprentice lads clinch the game after recovering a Tiger fumble, a touchdown pass and a good kick making the score 20-13.

At Lexington the Tigers dropped another game by the identical 20-13 count after being only one point behind. A fifty-yard punt return got the Generals off to a touchdown lead, and they added a safety to that when Sprye was caught behind the goal line. A beautiful 65-yard gallop by Opie Thomas on an intercepted pass matched the Minks' second touchdown, and Sprye set up a goal in the fourth quarter with passes to Sam Bailey. Richmond tallied from the six on a reverse and Hawley kicked the point, but the Generals passed for the winning marker with three minutes left to play.

Before a Homecoming gathering on October 24, Coach Summers' able aggregation could not do anything wrong as they passed and ran to a 33-6 victory over the Roanoke Maroons. Hampden-Sydney went over three times in the first quarter, tallied again in the third and a fifth time in the final period.

Two aerials from Sprye to Flanagan netted the initial score, Sprye went over on a reverse, and he kicked his second extra point for a 14-0 lead. Richmond outdistanced the Maroon back-field and took Sprye's next pass for a 45-yard run and a touchdown. Roanoke scored against the Bengal reserves on an intercepted pass.

With Sprye setting up the play on a pair of nice runs, Houtz plunged over for the third-period score, and Flanagan added the point. Ferguson scored on a 20-yard run after taking another heave from Captain Sprye who covered himself with glory that day. The whole team played well, in fact, as Summers said, "unbeatable."

A disastrous northern invasion followed in which the Tigers showed somewhat of a reversal of form but the real reason was the terrific power and finesse of a great Lehigh University eleven. Fighting all the way, the brave Bengals were able to tie the score in the second period when Paul "Plink" Johnson took a lateral from Flanagan who had received a pass from Sprye and covered 18 yards for a touchdown. The rest of the game was a complete rout as the potent Engineers had everything their own way.

The ancient rivals from Richmond came to Death Valley after a week layoff to tangle with the determined Tigers, and their diversified attack from the famed T-formation was too much for the home team. A number of threats was all Hampden-Sydney could muster, as Jack Wilbourne and mates took charge of the situation.

In the season's finale at Hampden-Sydney, the favored Randolph-Macon Jackets battled the Bengals to an exciting 6-6 tie with Bob Mistele grabbing a pass from Sprye for the Tiger touchdown. H. S. C. had to come from behind to make its score but far outplayed the visitors whose only real display of power was a series of line plunges which netted them a six-pointer after the recovery of a fumble deep in Hampden-Sydney territory. Eddie Campbell, Bill Houtz, and Clemmer Peck bore the brunt of the Tiger attack while linemen Johnson and Holland were outstanding on defense.

Seven seniors made their final bows that afternoon, and the task of replacing those heroes will be difficult. Captain Walter Sprye, John Sivell, Bobby Richmond, Francis Bailey, Clemmer Peck, Walter Buchanan, and Tom Combellick are the players who graduate while Bob Spencer and Bob Irby finished their last year taking care of the tedious managerial job. In addition to these, there may be others who will be absent ere another grid season rolls around at old Death Valley. Hampden-Sydney salutes you every one!

The Junior Varsity at Death Valley.

J U N I O R V A R S I T Y

Under the able guidance of Senior Clemmer Peck and Professor M. H. Bittinger, the first Hampden-Sydney Junior Varsity football team played a four-game schedule this year, winning one, losing two, and tying one. The 150-pound team, composed of practically the same players as the above mentioned jayvee, claimed the state title for the second consecutive year by virtue of an upset over the University of Virginia lightweights by the score of 13-2.

Making their debut on Saturday, September 26, the Baby Tigers traveled to Hopewell where they battled a strong Blue Devil eleven to a scoreless tie in the rain. The mud and a slippery ball slowed down the offense of both teams, but the Garnet and Gray, led by Sophomore Bobby Goad and Elbert Williamson seriously threatened in the third quarter until a fumble ended their goalward march. Taking possession of the leather, the Blue Devils drove to the H.-S. 20 on successive running plays, and on the fourth down a touchdown-labeled pass play stalled scant yards short of pay dirt when Charley Lewis came up from his safety spot to make the tackle and end the Hopewell scoring threat.

Gunning for their first victory the H.-S. jayvees then took to the road on Friday, October 9, and handed the Red and Black of Blackstone High a stinging 6-0 defeat in a night game which featured the initial appearance of the Death Valley boys under the arcs.

The baby Bengals stayed in Blackstone territory the entire first three quarters, but could not put the ball over until the last period when Williamson plunged from the ten. Captain Epes Harris, sterling Tiger center, was outstanding on the defense against his former teammates.

Playing before a home crowd for the first time, the H.-S. 150-pound team retained their state title Friday, October 23, by defeating the University of Virginia 13-2. This game was featured by the gallant goal-line stands of the Death Valley boys. Ronald Shillett passed to Scrub Newbill, ace flankman, in the early minutes of the game to give the Peckmen an imposing one-touchdown lead.

In the third period a bad pass from center over the goal line gave the Cavaliers a safety, but the Tigers came right back when Joe Nelson recovered a fumble on the Virginia one-yard line and Shillett drove over for the score. Charley Lewis and Billy Smith bore the brunt of the Tiger offense while Austin Dodson and Andy Tuck looked good on the defense.

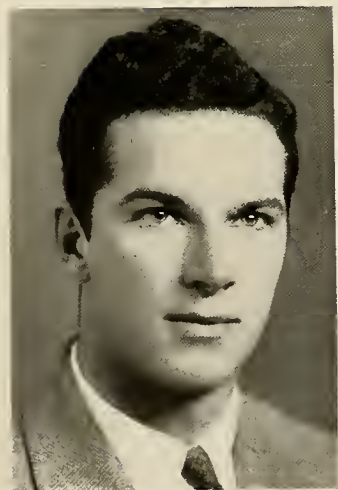

Two long passes gave a fast St. Christopher's team a 13-0 victory over the previously unbeaten H.S. Junior Varsity in Richmond, Friday, October 30. Sam Swindell, brilliant Saint passer, tossed a long touchdown aerial in the second period and again early in the fourth quarter before Russ Bebeau intercepted a Saint pass to set up the Tiger score. After several running plays, Walt Tunstall's pass to Newbill was good for 45 yards down to the Richmonders' six, from which place Tunstall cut off-tackle for the baby Bengals' only entry into pay dirt.

The fine play of the line was the only bright thing about the jayvees in their 31-0 rout by Crewe High, Saturday, November 7, on the high school field. Led by Clements, an elusive broken-field runner, and Bass, a hard-driving fullback, Crewe scored late in the first quarter, again in the second, twice in the third, and once more just before the closing whistle blew. The baby Tigers exhibited good form for the only time that day when early in the fourth period Bobby Goad, Bengal fullback, plunged over from the three.

Despite the Crewe defeat, the jayvees had a most successful season, and Coaches Peck and Bittinger and Managers Stuart and Jones are to be heartily congratulated.

E. W. WOLCOTT
Manager

Co-Captain Ace Livick

Facing a tough 19-game schedule with top-ranking college and service teams throughout the state, Coach Frank Summers had his varsity basketball candidates working out in the gym even before the close of the grid season in preparation for what was to come, especially the three contests before the holidays.

Without the services of Captain Glenn Toothman and Charley Blanton, the team's only set shot artist, the Tigers were definitely short in some departments, but from the first practice coach and players alike made plain to all that this year's edition of Bengal cagers would be a smart, fast, and alert ball club, ready for all comers.

Highscoring Les Pugh, the pointgetter of the Tiger quint, is back at forward and set for a prosperous season. Speedy and a good faker, Lynchburg Les should be well up among the leaders in the Old Dominion scoring parade if his uncanny layup shots continue to drop.

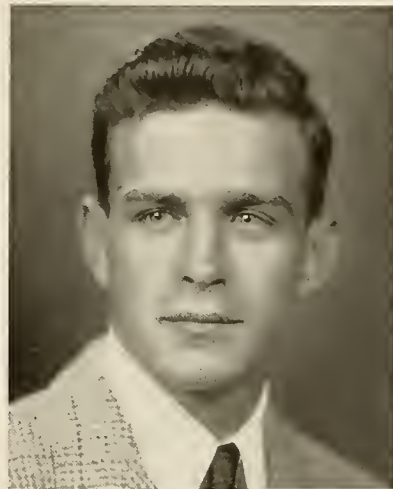

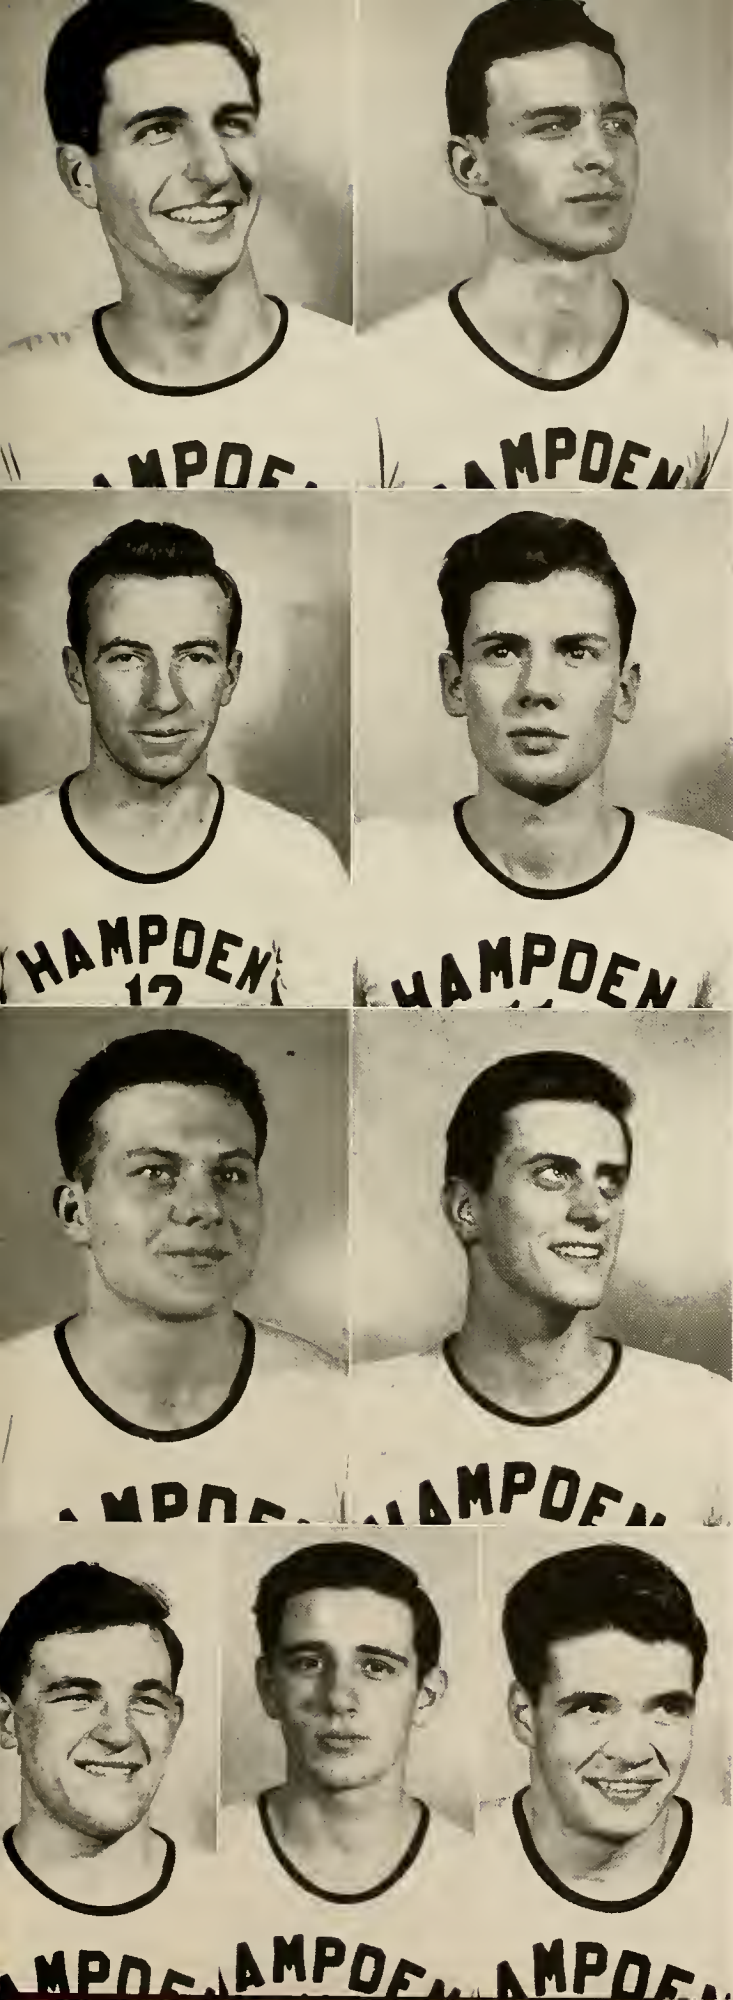

At the other forward position and an excellent compliment to Pugh is blond Frank Taylor, a defensive star. Because of his scrappiness and ballhawking tactics, Taylor manages to prove quite a thorn in opponents' flesh.

Attempting to retain or improve his second team all-state rating and in the center slot for Hampden-Sydney is rangy Ace Livick, the man who goes up to take charge of all rebounds. From the pivot position Livick also racks up a sizable total of baskets with a lefthanded hook-shot.

It is around this nucleus from last year's starting five that the team is built, but Tommy Johns has worked his way into a guard slot and serves notice that he is to be reckoned with by virtue of his fine all-around ability.

Freshmen Ned Flanagan and Bill Houtz are two first-year men who have really been impressive in the short time that they have represented the Bengal cagers. Invaluable under the basket on rebounds, big Flanagan carries himself well on the floor, and a scrapper all the way, Houtz has already proved his worth with his effective shooting from all angles.

Bill Harvie, up from last year's frosh and another ball hawk, will be seen a lot this season either as a starter or first-string reserve.

The remaining places on the varsity squad are not at all certain, but Ben Johns, Bob Holland, George Bales, John Catlett, and Jeff Hawley thus far have the edge on the other candidates. Senior manager Eddie Wolcott and Randy Trice are taking care of the boys this year and doing a fine job.

On Friday, December 11, the Tigers met a vastly improved Lynchburg College five and had to come from behind to turn the trick 50-36, after dropping back twelve points in the third period. Pugh, Livick, and Houtz led the Hampden-Sydney attack.

On the following night, a heralded all-star soldier outfit from Camp Lee successfully invaded Death Valley, but it was in the final desperate minute that the visitors sank the winning marker after being held down for three quarters by the alert defense of the game Tigers. Their part of the 33-31 score was the fewest by twenty of any total Camp Lee had made up until then in a campaign which had twice seen the soldier five perform in Madison Square Garden.

The other pre-holiday contest was postponed and scheduled to be played later when the Tigers tangle with the various state college rivals. If the early indications mean much, Hampden-Sydney should do big things on the hardwood this year.

BASEBALL

Claiming the mythical state championship on the strength of their fine record against all opposition, the Hampden-Sydney Tigers had one of their best seasons. The results were especially outstanding considering the losses suffered by graduation, to the armed services of both players and of Coach Herman Brackett who left in early season.

Mr. Henry Bittinger took over the coaching reins on short notice and steered his charges to a 700 percentage against all colleges in the Old Dominion besides making a remarkable showing in defeat at the hands of the powerful service teams from Naval Training Station and Camp Lee.

In the schedule opener at Wilk's Field in Farmville, Roy Duncan and freshman Walter Tunstall hurled their mates to a 16-2 victory over Lynchburg College while the whole squad joined the tremendous assault that blasted the visiting mound staff.

Featuring a number of major leaguers including ex-Tiger and ex-Cleveland Indian Clarence "Soup" Campbell, the Camp Lee nine topped the Tigers 7-5. Bob Mistele did an excellent job in a relief role while freshman Paul Johnson rapped out two run-producing hits.

On April 14, big Bob Mistele came back with a six-hit shutout over V. P. I., as he allowed only one Techman to reach third base. Johnson blasted out a pair of doubles and a single to take responsibility for both Hampden-Sydney tallies.

A few days later in the return game at Blacksburg after dropping behind 9-1, the Bengals bounced back to gain an eleven-inning 10-10 tie led by Captain Bill Baskervill's three-run homer and Bobby Richmond's four hits in five attempts. Duncan gave up but one run in a superb eight-inning relief performance.

Traveling to Ashland for a go with the Yellow Jackets, Bittinger's lads trounced the home team 6-2 behind Mistele with Walter Sprye's four-master providing the most excitement.

In a free-hitting contest the Spiders from Richmond turned back the Tigers 10-5 despite Jim Gregory's three hits including a homer and a strong supporting attack by Johnson, Sprye, and Baskervill.

Errors hurt the cause since each team garnered the same number of hits.

Roanoke College also stopped the Tigers in an error-marred contest, 9-8, despite the fine mound and plate performances of Tunstall and Mistele.

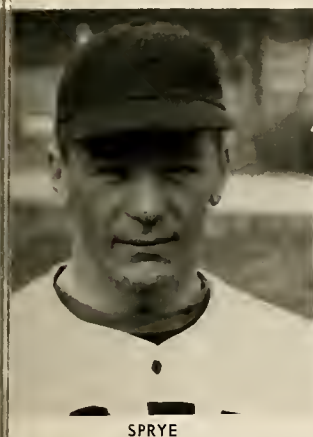

Behind the beautiful four-hit pitching of Duncan, Hampden-Sydney nipped Randolph-Macon 1-0 at Wilk's Field. Shorty Beale was the batting and fielding star of the game as he teamed with Richmond at the keystone sack for several spectacular plays and scored the lone marker of the day on a double to left, a passed ball, and an outfield fly.

Journeying to Williamsburg, Coach Bittinger's boys found the range in a ninth-inning rally to stop the previous year's champions 7-6 behind lefthander Earl Wood who pitched and batted his mates to victory with the able assistance of outfielder Jim Gregory whose stickwork was an important factor in the rally.

With Bob Mistele holding the highly-touted Fars to seven hits, Hampden-Sydney went down gallantly before the powerful assemblage of big league stars at the Norfolk Naval Training Station. A late-inning spurt earned the Sailors their victory although it was tough on the Tigers who played far over their heads, especially Wood, Richmond, and Beale, besides Mistele, all of whom gained the respect of the potent Navy combine.

Suffering an inevitable off day, the Bengals were defeated by the hard-hitting Cavaliers at Charlottesville, 24-7. Charley Blanton and Sprye clouted homers for 11, S. C. but to no avail.

Camp Lee stopped the Tigers 9-5 as Mistele could not hold the soldier bats in check, but two days later at Death Valley the Garnet and Gray jumped on the Medical College nine for five runs in the tenth frame of an extended ball game with Johnson and Blanton showing the way. Wood turned in a fine hurling job.

Lefthander Maxie Wilson, formerly of the Philadelphia Phils, next made the Valley boys the unfortunate victims of a beautiful no-run, no-hit game which saw the sailors blast out a 13-0 win. Tunstall came on the hill in the fourth stanza and held the Naval Training Station the rest of the way, a really outstanding feat.

In the season finale at Farnville against the rivals from Richmond, little Roy Duncan held the Spiders to one run and won his own game with a single in the last of the ninth with three men on base to gain the most important success of the entire campaign.

There was no better record in state competition, and the Tigers have reason to be proud. The nucleus of the team has graduated, making the prospects of this coming spring rather uncertain, but Coach Summers plans to put a worthy outfit in the state race, provided, of course, that the various schools will be able to maintain a schedule under the present difficulties. H. S. C. will miss sorely the services of Wood, Hay, Beale, Baskervill, Blanton, and Tunstall as well as managers Tom Atkinson and Will Rogers.

On the bright side is the fact that Misteale, Tunstall, Richmond, Johnson, Sprye, Duncan, and several outstanding reserves from last year will be on hand. Sprye and Duncan were elected to be co-captains and will lead the Tigers on the field. Boyd Beall has been chosen to the managerial post.

Winning all but one match and thereby gaining the runner-up spot in Old Dominion tennis circles Tiger courtmen of the 1942 season established firmly Hampden-Sydney's place in state competition.

Captain Alan White and Sophomores Les Pugh, Frank Taylor and Tommy Johns were expected to carry the burden of the spring matches, and well they did, but the happiest note of the campaign was sounded by the performances of Freshmen Rogers Stuart and Bill Ammonette and Junior Horace Paist.

Twin victories over Randolph-Macon and Washington-Lee, besides one win apiece over William and Mary, Loyola, and the ancient rivals from Richmond earned Hampden-Sydney due recognition and the right to meet the Virginia Cavaliers, also undefeated, for the state title. The results in the match at Charlottesville were unfavorable but not discouraging, and Bengal courtmen will be challenging again this spring.

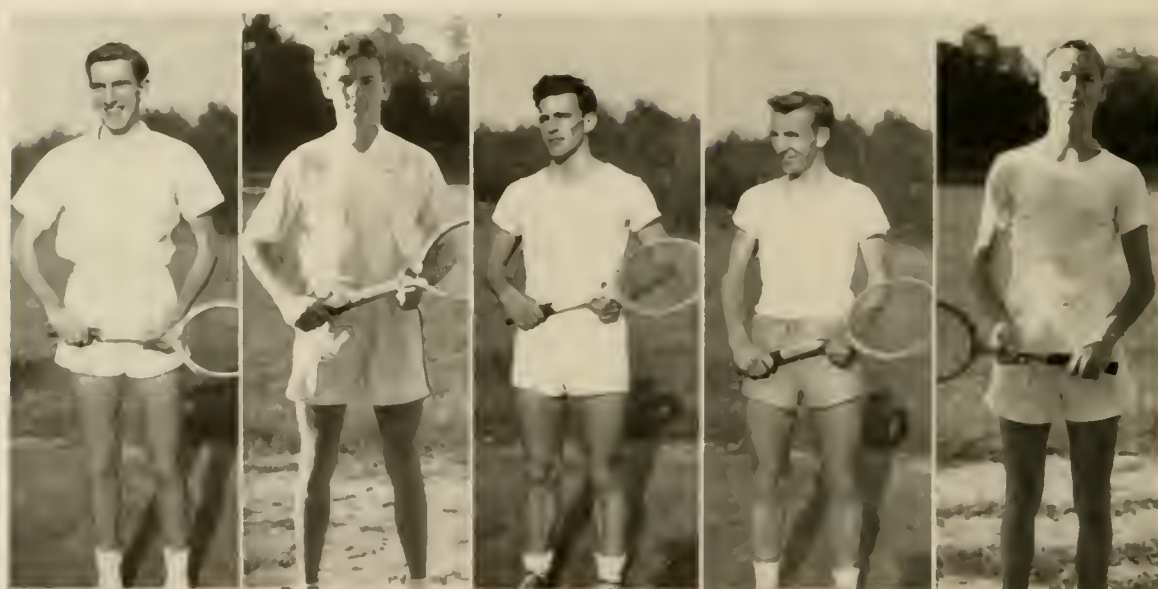

Although no definite arrangements have been made, it is probable that Mr. Henry Bittinger will return to his position as tennis coach and devote his full time to this sport, making way for Athletic Director Frank Summers, who takes charge of baseball.

Hampden-Sydney is sorry to lose White and Johns who will have already graduated, but when tennis season rolls around, the aforementioned Pugh, Taylor, Paist, Stuart, and Ammonette are counted on to hold their own against any opposition. In addition there will be Preston Watt, Shelton Clarke and several freshman discoveries who furnished numerous surprises in the Fall Brass Mug Tournament.

This tourney, only begun in 1941, was won by Bobby Richmond that year and by Frank Taylor in 1942, and has turned out to be a valuable as well as popular experiment, since match competition and the prospects found through it have already raised the caliber of Hampden-Sydney tennis.

Last year's schedule, although hampered by bad weather and transportation difficulties, was interesting and successful, and despite the uncertainties of the future, H. S. C. is looking forward to tennis prosperity.

INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

Last year the Pikas won the coveted all-intramural cup by winning the football and basketball leagues and taking the track meet. This is the sixth cup for the Pikas in the seven years of competition and they are ahead in the standing at the time of the writing. Much credit must be given Charles "Hawk" Ale for handling the job of intramural manager so well in spite of the everpresent criticism of all the fraternities.
